Find the CLEAR Health Pass app in your smart phone’s application store. There’s more than one CLEAR app; choose the one that looks like this: Then follow these basic steps:

- Continue following the prompts for uploading your photo ID and information. When you’re done, you should get a screen that looks like this, with your photo and unique QR code. This is what you’ll show us in Atlanta. You may have to refresh this when you get to Atlanta. Open the app and tap the white “Your Pass” tile, take a quick selfie and answer the survey questions. Tap “Open Health Pass” and you’ll get this screen again, ready to show us:
