

Celebration of Mind

Co-sponsored by the Digital Integrative Liberal Arts Center (DILAC) at Georgia Tech and the Gathering 4 Gardner Foundation

Paula S. Apsell got her start in broadcasting at WGBH Boston and in 1975, she joined NOVA, a science documentary series that has set the standard for science programming on television and online, producing documentaries on subjects as varied as artificial intelligence, genetic engineering, and aviation safety. In 1985, after a year at MIT as a Fellow in Science Journalism, she became Senior Executive Producer at NOVA. In 2018, she was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Emmy by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. She is a Fellow of the AAAS.

The Art of Science Communication

Paula S. Apsell (former Senior Executive Producer at NOVA)

How do you tell stories about science? After 35 years at the helm of the celebrated PBS science series NOVA, Paula S. Apsell will discuss the art of science communication on television and online. Using clips from NOVA, she will share how complex scientific ideas are made not only accessible, but compelling to a wide range of viewers.

Time & Location:

Thursday, October 21, 2021 @ 4pm ET
Skiles Bldg 006, Georgia Tech
686 Cherry St., Atlanta 30332

Zoom Event Link:

<https://zoom.us/j/93502013825>

Contact:

Prof. Evans Harrell, harrell@math.gatech.edu

