We'll have fun the mathematical way!

Get your friends to try too.

Some are old, some are new.

Will magic your worries away.

A puzzle to solve every day.
Let's dive in with no more delay!

Though you might need a clue:

Much more fun than you knew.

Will all of your wits on display.

A conundrum that leads you astray.

Martin Gardner’s diversions, they say,

Can always keep boredom at bay.

I tell you it’s true,

Why not try one or two?

After all, what is life without play?
